

The state of health care and adult social care in England 2023/24

The state of health care and adult social care in England 2023/24

State of Care is our annual assessment of health care and social care in England.

The report looks at the trends, shares examples of good and outstanding care, and highlights where care needs to improve.

Download an easy read version of this report

State of Care 2023/24: Easy read version
20231025_stateofcare2324_easyread.pdf

File title

State of Care 2023/24: Easy read version

Keywords
easy read

Contents

Foreword

Ian Dilks introduces this year's report.

Summary

This year's State of Care at a glance.

Evidence used in this report

The things we looked at to inform this year's State of Care.

Challenges affecting access and quality in health and social care services

- Primary and community care
 - Adult social care
 - Mental health
 - Secondary care
-

Areas of specific concern

- Maternity care
 - Children and young people's health
 - Care for autistic people and people with a learning disability
 - Black men's mental health
 - People with dementia
 - Termination of pregnancy services
 - Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards \(DoLS\)
-

Local system response

- Integrated care systems
 - Local authority assessments
-

Other information

- Appendix: Ratings charts
- Press release: Risk of “failing the future” if children and young people don't get the care they need, CQC warns

Join the conversation

- X: #StateofCare

Presented to Parliament pursuant to section 83(4)(a) of the Health and Social Care Act 2008.

Ordered by the House of Commons to be printed on 24 October 2024.

© Care Quality Commission