

Executive Reviewer Welcome

Welcome

We hope you will find this information page a practical support to you in providing ongoing clarity regarding the scope and intentions of your role as a member of a well-led review team. The 'Executive Reviewer' is a crucial role in ensuring the credibility of our well – led reviews, working alongside our inspectors to bring an expertise in corporate leadership from a variety of sectors and providing an essential element of peer review to the inspection process.

We hope you will help us to develop this page into a useful tool to support you within your role as an Executive Reviewer for CQC. As we receive questions or suggestions regarding issues we will seek to respond to these via this page, to provide transparency and promote cascade of information.

Specific feedback you have given us to date on your experience as an Executive Reviewer has been invaluable to us in identifying best practice and priorities for improvement. This feedback has created a focus and pace to improvements, which we wish to continue. We thank you for continuing to provide us with feedback following each review you are involved with using this link Executive Reviewer Feedback on Well Led Reviews Questionnaire. This will continue to help us effectively understand how we can optimise the influence we wish you to have as a member of the well – led review teams and ultimately strengthen the consistency with which these reviews are being undertaken.

With many thanks again for your commitment to working with us to ensure the well-led reviews undertaken are of the greatest diagnostic value to each organisation.

Regards

Gillian Hooper
